How to determine your fee

Step 1

You determine your fee by taking into account your overall family monthly income (after taxation) and the proposed sliding scale above. You need to place yourself on the left hand side of this scale according to what you feel is realistic and reasonable for your particular situation and, at the same time, fair to everyone concerned.

PLEASE GIVE THIS CAREFUL CONSIDERATION

If you are unable to cover the lowest proposed tariff you may apply for a grant from the PRH Bursary (subject to availability). Forms are available from the address given below. Please note that early application is advised and grants must be negotiated and agreed upon before the final payment is due.

Step 2

Once you have decided on your income bracket, choose your tariff amount according to the date range you are currently in as you will need to include this on the registration form. e.g. registering on 9th June & monthly income £1750 – you are in income bracket “from £1001 - £2000 & “Full Tariff” period so workshop fee would be £400.

The longer you leave it, the less discount you get, and the more you risk not getting a place.

How the fee scale is determined

PRH England is a non-profit making organisation. Three considerations determine workshop fees:

- that PRH personal growth be available to as many people as possible
- that PRH educators be able to live from their work
- that PRH England covers its running costs

What the fees cover

- the educator's fees
- the workshop materials
- the running costs of PRH England

What the fees do not cover

- the cost of accommodation for residential courses, which varies according to the venue
- day delegates' fees for Conference centres
- a nominal fee for non-residential courses held in Southwold to cover the cost of refreshments and use of facilities
- art materials (£15 extra, only when applicable)

Step 3

Early Bird / Full Tariff:

Return your completed application form with your £50 deposit (non-refundable). The balance can be paid at that time or any time before the 2nd August 2021.

Last Chance Tariff:

Balance payments made after 2nd August will incur a £15 administration charge.

Payments to an incorrect account or payee will incur a £10 administration charge. (both charges can apply concurrently)

Refunds

If necessary, depending on circumstances and closeness to the event, we will consider the possibility of refunding a percentage of workshop fees. Please note the initial £50 deposit and a percentage of venue fees paid, are non-refundable.
